

KNOW YOUR FAIR HOUSING RIGHTS!

Attention mental health consumers, family members, advocates, mental health organizations and housing providers!

Mental Health Advocacy Services (MHAS) has launched a new project to provide fair housing education and outreach. We will:

- 🏠 Conduct fair housing workshops to educate mental health consumers and others about their fair housing rights;
- 🏠 Distribute fair housing information, including the Fair Housing Tip of the Month;
- 🏠 Assist individuals with fair housing questions;
- 🏠 Provide technical assistance to organizations.

JOIN OUR MAILING LIST

Each month, we will e-mail a Fair Housing Tip of the Month message, which will provide practical information about the fair housing rights of people with disabilities. Topics will include: reasonable accommodation, confidentiality, emotional support animals, and evictions.

To join the e-mail list, please submit your e-mail address at www.mhas-la.org.
